RSAR Donates $4,000 to Sierra North Valley Association of REALTORS® for Camp Fire Relief

RENO, Nev. – The Reno/Sparks Association of REALTORS® (RSAR) has donated $4,000 in cash and gift cards to the Sierra North Valley Association of REALTORS® in Chico, Calif. for the Golden Valley Bank Fire Relief Fund.

Sierra North Valley REALTORS® provides services to more than 500 real estate professionals in Butte and Glenn County.

“We are very grateful to RSAR for the donated gift cards and the check for Golden Valley Bank Fire Relief Fund,” said Peggy Mead, executive director, Sierra North Valley Association of REALTORS. “Their generosity will go a long way in helping so many people who have lost everything. Whether our members have purchased new homes, left the area, are renting or are still in hotels or with family, they all need help rebuilding their lives. Thank you to the REALTOR community in Reno-Sparks for the hand up!”

“As part of its commitment to the REALTOR community and local communities, the RSAR believes in civic involvement and helping others,” said April LaBrie, CEO, RSAR. “We hope that this donation can provide some relief to those that need it.”
